As you develop as a doctor and begin your transition to registrar, the challenges can be both exciting and overwhelming. Dr Tom Campbell has successfully made this journey to registrar and is keen to share his recent experiences with fellow medical officers.

In this webinar, Dr Campbell will provide insight into the personal and professional risks that confront doctors in their intern and prevocational years in hospitals as they head towards becoming a registrar. A number of important strategies for interns and young doctors will be provided to put you in a strong position to successfully navigate this often dangerous course.

Mastering Medical Officer Risk is not accredited with Colleges.

To obtain a Certificate of Attendance you must view the entire webinar and complete a feedback form. You may pause the video but you cannot track forward or back.
