

Privacy update: medico-legal issues for medical and dental practitioners webinar on demand

Reading time:

MIPS

Date created: 25/02/2026

Questions about privacy, confidentiality, and the release of medical records are among the most common enquiries received by our medico-legal advisors. This session provides an opportunity to hear directly from experts and have your questions addressed.

In our first webinar for 2026, we'll explore recent changes to the Commonwealth Privacy Act and examine common privacy-related case scenarios drawn from MIPS claims data, supporting you to better understand your legal obligations and manage privacy issues in clinical practice.

Learning outcomes

By the end of this session, you'll be able to:

Discuss key privacy legislative changes impacting clinical practice and workflows.

Identify reasonable steps healthcare practitioners can take to protect sensitive health information, ensure regulatory and legal compliance, and manage privacy breaches.

Plan practical risk mitigation strategies to minimise medico-legal risk.
