

Reflecting on Medicolegal Responsibilities in Voluntary Assisted Dying - Post webinar activity

Reading time:

Pamela Ferrada

Date created: 25/08/2026

Webinar: Voluntary Assisted Dying Foundations: Reviewing Performance in Clinical Practice

Time to complete: 1 hour

Voluntary Assisted Dying (VAD) is now an available aspect of end-of-life care. A clear understanding of the legal and professional responsibilities associated with VAD is essential for navigating Australia's jurisdictional requirements safely and confidently.

This post-webinar CPD activity is designed for MIPS members who attended, either live or OnDemand, the webinar Voluntary assisted dying (VAD): Voluntary assisted dying (VAD): Legal and Clinical insights for medical practitioners.

This activity is accredited as a 1 hour Reviewing Performance CPD category.

Participants will work through one hypothetical clinical scenario and complete guided self-reflection questions to evaluate their knowledge, confidence and approach to VAD-related care.

Please allow approximately 1 hour to complete this activity.
